

Oh my sweet Charlie, my Booodle McGee...

I love you completely, as much as could be!

Spending today with just you was the very most fun...

Bouncing and giggling and soaking up sun!

I'm grateful for you, Charlie, my little dude man...

Did you know that Mommy's your biggest big fan?

As the day dwindles down and the sun starts to set...

Of my time with you, I have zero regrets!

Finally we head to your bedroom, it's time...

To read one last book, and enjoy some good rhymes!

You kick your strong legs, and your breath is a flutter...

Tooting toots so darn cute that I melt like warm butter!

With a fresh diapie on, we feel so fresh and so fine...

You're the cutest sweet kiddo, I'm so happy you're mine.

We're ready for bedtime, we sneak our very last drinks...

Mommy's milka is yummy, not like formula, that stinks!

Now your eyelids are heavy, and your breaths are so deep...

Mommy snuggles you close, it's time for Charlie to sleep.

I love you more than you ever could know...

You're my son, my baby, my family, fo-sho.
